SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

This revision contains minor word changes for clarification; deletes Attachment 1 organization charts and refers to the HQ AFMC/XPMO website for the current WR-ALC organizational structures.

1. Mission. WR-ALC supports the goals and objectives of Air Force Materiel Command (AFMC) and other related Air Force/Department of Defense activities by providing affordable combat superiority, readiness, and sustainability to our customers--the warfighters. WR-ALC provides cradle-to-grave weapon system management, acquisition oversight, and integrated logistics support for the F-15, C-130, C-141, U-2, various special operations forces aircraft, and helicopters, and depot maintenance for the C-5. Similar support is provided for electronic warfare equipment, avionics, general purpose computers, missiles, aircraft propellers, and vehicles of various types. Through the use of integrated weapon system management techniques, WR-ALC provides a full range of logistics support, including budgeting and financial management, acquisition and contracting, and systems engineering and maintenance throughout each system's life cycle.

2. Command. WR-ALC, Robins AFB, Georgia, is a direct reporting unit of the AFMC. The WR-ALC commander is designated the installation commander of Robins AFB.

3. Organization Structure. The organization structures of WR-ALC and its subordinate units are according to the Air Force Blueprint, AFI 38-101, Air Force Organization, and HQ AFMC/HQ USAF-approved variances to the structures. The approved Blueprint organization structure for WR-ALC is at www.afmc-mil.wpafb.af.mil/organizations/HQ-AFMC/XP/XPM/xpmo/index.htm.

3.1. Organization Changes. Requests to change the organizational structures of WR-ALC and its subordinate organizations and units must be made according to AFI 38-101 and HQ AFMC/XP/XPM policy guidance. Requests that require HQ AFMC/XP/XPM approval must be submitted through the WR-ALC/XPM and approved by the WR-ALC command section.
